

When life calls for legal help, MetLife Legal Plans is there for you.

We know that legal help is valuable at every stage of life. That's why we created a plan to provide legal help for the entire family. With our Plus Parents plan, in addition to the legal help you receive, your parents and parents-in-law (up to 8 parents - 4 sets) have access to legal help for the issues they face, from estate planning to elder care matters and identity theft issues.

Choose from more than 18,000 attorneys nationwide

Your parents can receive legal advice and representation from our nationwide attorney network. They can consult with an attorney on the phone or in person. They can also use an out-of-network attorney and get reimbursed for covered services according to a set fee schedule.¹

How to use the plan

Members or parents can call the MetLife Legal Plans Client Service Center at 800.821.6400, Monday through Friday 8 am to 8 pm ET. A representative will confirm plan eligibility (please provide the name of the company that sponsors the legal plan) and provide a case number and contact information of the appropriate attorney(s) for you to schedule an appointment. That's it! There are no copays, deductibles or waiting periods when you use a network attorney for a covered matter.

1. You will be responsible to pay the difference, if any, between the plan's payment and the out-of-network attorney's charge for services.

2. This benefit provides the Participant with access to LifeStages Identity Management Services provided by CyberScout, LLC. CyberScout is not a corporate affiliate of MetLife Legal Plans.
